Dear Friends,

This is Queens College Hillel's 70th Anniversary, and we have so much to celebrate! Hillel has served tens of thousands of Jewish QC students over these seven decades, and we're more vibrant now than ever before.

Hillel International selected us from more than 550 campuses world-wide for the prestigious Philip H. and Susan Rudd Cohen Outstanding Campus Award for "engaging a vastly diverse Jewish student body in deep, thoughtful and relevant ways and embodying pluralism and tolerance in the best tradition of Hillel." We are proud of what we have accomplished so far, and we are excited to continue our partnership with you. Want to get involved? Contact me at uri@qchillel.org or 718-793-2222.

Thank you for being part of the QC Hillel family! We look forward to many "Outstanding" years to come.

Sincerely,

Uri Cohen

What will your Jewish legacy be? Start your legacy today!

Learn how your planned gift can provide future generations of Jewish Queens College students with the resources to explore and expand their Jewish identity and their involvement in Jewish life.

- There are several ways to start your legacy. You can:
- Include Queens College Hillel in your will
 - Designate Hillel as a beneficiary of your retirement plan
 - Create a Charitable Gift Annuity
 - Make an endowment gift of appreciated stock or cash

To find out more and to start your QC Jewish Legacy, contact Uri Cohen at 718-793-2222 or by email at legacy@qchillel.org.

QUEENS COLLEGE HILLEL

Students celebrate Yom Ha'atzma'ut, Israel's Independence Day, on the quad.

Mission

Queens College Hillel seeks to create meaningful Jewish experiences that encourage Jewish students to make an enduring commitment to Jewish life, learning, and Israel.

Vision

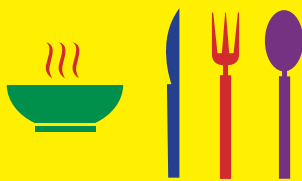

We envision a world in which every Jewish student makes an enduring commitment to Jewish life.

1,147 students engaged with Hillel

366 students participated in 6 or more Hillel activities

1,354 students enjoyed Shabbat meals

Bukharian students host a Choikhona (tea house) event in the sukkah.

"QC Hillel showed me that there can be an infinite number of ways to have meaningful Jewish experiences, and that it's not just okay, but rather it is the essence of who we are as Jews."
— Shanie R., Class of 2017

Did you know . . . ?

- Jewish undergraduates make up 25% of the Queens College campus community.
- Queens College is ranked #10 in "Top 60 Public Schools Jews Choose" in the Hillel College Guide: The Official Hillel Guide to Jewish Life on Campus, Spring 2016).
- Queens College is ranked #18 in "Top 60 Schools Jews Choose" (public and private) in the Hillel College Guide.

At QC Hillel last year . . .

- 205 students participated in Israel-related events.
- 430 students participated in Jewish learning opportunities.
- 12 Jewish clubs were active on campus.

"Vibrant Jewish life on campus is important to me because it is a community that I want to be a part of. The Queens College Jewish community is large, loud, and proud, and I love being a part of that huge, multifaceted community."
— Noah D., Class of 2018
